4. Reports

4.1 International Youth Mission Camp 2012 (reported by Pastor WONG Wing Hong)

4.1.1 There were about 140 registrations under “Early Bird Discount” in the Hong Kong District. The Committee has increased the quota to 180 and thus the revised budget for the camp is attached for your reference (please refer to Appendix I).

4.1.2 A proposed name of one of the gatherings of the Camp on June 24 at Hong Kong Ling Liang Church was “Commissioning Conference for Ling Liang Vision”.

5. Discussions

5.1 The Planning for the 2012 International Youth Mission Camp

5.1.1 Increase the quota to 200: The existing quota is 180 and 140 applicants have registered under “Early Bird Discount” which means that there are 40 quotas left. As originally 50 quotas were reserved for overseas so it was agreed to increase to 200 and the priority was given to brothers and sisters from foreign churches. All participants have to be over 16 years old and overseas participants are required to be able to communicate in English. If local applicants failed to complete their registration before the end of January, they would be put in the waiting list. In the meantime, it was suggested that the Committee checked with the campus about the possibility to provide extra beds within a short time so as to meet any sudden requirement.

5.1.2 Rename on June 24 evening: It was approved by the Committee to rename the gathering to Commissioning Conference for Ling Liang Vision.

5.2 The Planning of LLWEMA 2013

5.2.1 Reservation of a hotel/guesthouse: tentatively foreign participants were 60. It was suggested checking the room rate of South Pacific Hotel Hong Kong first and then making decision whether booking a guesthouse or a hotel.

5.2.2 Theme of the Conference: It was recommended to start thinking from “Taking over by the Youth” and “Integration with International Youth Mission Camp” and this will be discussed in the next meeting. Moreover, when sending invitation letters to overseas churches, we shall encourage them to appoint young people to attend.

5.3 The 14th LLWEMA Total Budget Expenses

5.3.1 LLWEM-Hong Kong United Mission Limited donated HK$40,000.00 to support those overseas participants who have difficulties. It was proposed to donate the rest amount to LLWEMA after LLWEM-Hong Kong United Mission Limited assisted all those needy and this amount will not be included in the budget.

5.3.2 The general expenses budget of the 2012 the International Youth Mission Camp is HK$110,000.00.

5.3.3 The general expenses budget of the 2013 the General Assembly of LLWEMA in 2013 is HK$270,000.00.

5.3.4 The general expenses budget of the 14th LLWEMA Committee will be discussed in the next meeting.

5.4 Cooperation with Grace Ling Liang Church (GLLC) in India to Develop Gospel

Ministries

Rev MOK Hing Wan, Moses visited India last year and learnt that there was a great demand for local delivery of gospel and GLLC urgently to hire a preacher. It was also concerned in what area LLWWEMA could support and co-operate to develop gospel ministries.

Resolved:

- i. GLLC forwarded a specific plan or a short-term goal;
- ii. Passed this message to all Ling Liang churches so as to let them concern, support and pray. It was proposed to provide some detailed information in the website of LLWWEMA regarding "Mission Plan". LLWWEMA will share the vision with other churches so as to explore the feasibility of financial support and cooperation in the development of gospel ministries;
- iii. A visit/short-term mission will be organized by LLWWEMA in Oct 2012. Apart from North America District, Indonesia District is also expected to have representatives to attend so as to understand the situation in India in-depth.
